I Am (1990)

Andrew BOYSEN, JR.
(b. 1968)

I Am

Life, Music, Competition.

I like exciting things, and doing good for others.

Beauty, Successfulness and Smartness are important to me.

I like to achieve recognition.

I can succeed if I really put my mind to it.

I am very set in my ways,

But I can change when I realize my ignorance.

I like a simple nonchalant lifestyle.

I hate ignorance.

I hate structuredness.

This is me. I am!

BIOGRAPHIES

Eric W. Bush is Associate Director of Bands and Director of the Hawkeye Marching Band in the School of Music at the University of Iowa, where he also serves as Ensemble Area Head. He leads the athletic band program, conducts the Iowa Concert Band, and teaches various other courses, including marching band techniques and band arranging.

During Bush's tenure as Director of the Hawkeye Marching Band, the ensemble has earned national recognition for innovative show design, dynamic collaborations, and exponential growth in engagement among students, alumni, and the Hawkeye community. He is proud to have designed noteworthy shows such as "Superheroes," a 2018 collaboration with the University of Iowa Stead Family Children's Hospital Kid Captain program; "HMBTV" (2019); and 2022's celebration of the 120th anniversary of the birth of Meredith Willson, which featured 76 trombones on the field in Kinnick Stadium. In 2020, he designed an implemented an entire season of "Virtual Game Days" at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Hawkeye Marching Band collaborated with The Ohio State University Marching Band in the 2022 season to perform a fully integrated halftime show celebrating the music and career of Sir Elton John, which gained national attention and recognition from Elton John himself.

As Associate Director of Bands, Bush continues a tradition of excellence with the Iowa Concert Band, and also enjoys opportunities to conduct the Iowa Symphony Band. Notable performances include the Midwest premiere of Aaron Perrine's A Dream of Trees at the 2020 College Band Directors National Association North Central Division conference and a highly acclaimed performance of Carnevale di Venezia featuring trumpet superstar Allen Vizzutti at the 2022 Iowa Bandmasters Association conference. In spring of 2023, Bush will guest conduct the Iowa Symphony Band in Kimberly Archer's Fanfare Politeia at the prestigious American Bandmasters Association conference.

Bush is very active in the music community, as he guest conducts, clinics, and adjudicates regularly, and he is frequently invited for guest speaking engagements. His professional affiliations include the College Band Directors National Association (CBDNA), National Band Association (NBA), Big Ten Band Directors Association (BTBDA), and the Iowa Bandmasters Association (IBA). Bush has served as faculty advisor to both the Penn State and University of Iowa collegiate chapters of the national music fraternity Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. In this capacity, he was honored with the coveted Orpheus Award. Dr. Bush lives in Iowa City with his wife, Alex, and their son, Brecken.

Myron Peterson, a teaching assistant at the University of Iowa, previously spent twenty-one years as a director of bands at Urbandale High School in Urbandale, Iowa. During his tenure, the Urbandale Wind Ensemble performed as the class 4A honor band at the Iowa Bandmasters Association (IBA) Conference. The band also appeared three times at the IBA Conference as a clinic session band. Peterson led performances with the Urbandale bands across the United States, performing concerts and collaborating with bands in Iowa, Minnesota, Ohio, Indiana, New Jersey, Connecticut, Hawaii, and Missouri. Prior to his arrival at Urbandale, Peterson taught for two years in the Oskaloosa Community School District, also in Iowa.

Peterson is currently pursuing a Doctor of Musical Arts in wind conducting at the University of Iowa under the primary instruction of Dr. Mark Heidel. He holds an MM in wind conducting (2021) from Colorado State University (CSU) studying with Dr. Rebecca Phillips. Peterson earned his Bachelor of Music Education from the University of Northern Iowa (UNI) in 1995.

As a leader, Peterson is a past president of the Iowa Bandmasters Association (IBA), past president of the South Central Iowa Bandmasters Association (SCIBA), and was the founding treasurer of the Jazz Educators of Iowa (JEI). In addition to his professional affiliations with the IBA, SCIBA, and JEI, Peterson is also affiliated with the National Band Association, and College Band Directors National Association.

Myron D. Welch retired as Professor of Music and Director of Bands at The University of Iowa in 2008. During his twenty-eight year tenure at Iowa he conducted the Symphony Band and Chamber Wind Ensemble, coordinated the graduate program in band conducting, and taught courses in instrumental methods, conducting and band literature. In 2001, Dr. Welch was named a Collegiate Fellow in the UI College of Liberal Arts and Sciences for his years of outstanding teaching, service and dedication to the college.

Ensembles under his direction have performed at state and national conventions for the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, Ohio Music Education Association, Iowa Music Educators Association, Music Educators National Conference, Iowa Bandmasters Association, College Band Directors National Association, and the American Bandmasters Association. The University of Iowa Symphony Band presented a concert in Carnegie Hall in March of 2008. Dr. Welch was a reviewer of new music for The Instrumentalist and is a frequent guest conductor, adjudicator and clinician. He has appeared with the Goldman Band of New York City, numerous all-state bands and honor bands, and served on the conducting faculties of Interlochen Center for the Arts, Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp and music camps throughout the country.

Dr. Welch is Past-President of the American Bandmasters Association, Past-President of the Iowa Bandmasters Association, Past-President and Treasurer of the Big Ten Band Directors Association, and holds membership in the College Band Directors National Association (Past-President, North Central Division), National Band Association (College/University Representative), Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (Past-Faculty Advisor), and Music Educators National Conference.

Dr. Welch was awarded the National Band Association's Citation of Excellence in 1998. In 2000, he was recognized in the Music Educators National Conference publication, Teaching Music, as an accomplished teacher for his teaching skills and efforts to advance music in the education of young people. He was named the winner of the National Federation of State High School Associations "Outstanding Music Educator Award" for Iowa, 2004-2005, the regional award winner for 2005-2006, and the national award winner in 2009. The Iowa Music Educators Association presented him with the IMEA Distinguished Service Award in December 2004, and he was selected as the 2005 Outstanding Bandmaster by Phi Beta Mu International. In 2006, Dr. Welch received the Karl L. King Distinguished Service Award from the Iowa Bandmasters Association. The Association of Concert Bands presented him with the Mentor Ideal Award in 2007 and The University of Iowa Graduate College honored him as an Outstanding Graduate Mentor for 2007. Dr. Welch received the Orpheus Award from Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia in 2008 and was honored with the "Friend of the Iowa Bandmasters Association" award at their 2008 annual conference and Honorary Life Membership in 2019. He was named an Honorary Life Member of the American Bandmasters Association at their annual convention in 2022.

Richard Mark Heidel is in his 15th year as Director of Bands and Professor of Music in the School of Music at the University of Iowa where he conducts the Iowa Symphony Band, teaches graduate courses in conducting and band literature, guides the graduate band conducting program, and oversees all aspects of the University of Iowa band program. Ensembles under Dr. Heidel's direction have performed at national, regional, and state conferences including those of the College Band Directors National Association, Music Educators National Conference, Iowa Bandmasters Association, Wisconsin Music Educators Association, Illinois Music Educators Association, and National Band Association-Wisconsin Chapter. He has also led concert tours to the Republic of Ireland and the United Kingdom as well as throughout the Midwest.

Dr. Heidel has been distinguished with memberships in numerous national and international honor societies and fraternities including Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Pi Kappa Lambda, Kappa Kappa Psi, Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Kappa Phi, Kappa Delta Pi, Pi Nu Epsilon, and Golden Key. He was the recipient of the Outstanding Musician award at Texas Tech University in both 1985 and 1986, and in 1997, he received the A. A. Harding award at the University of Illinois for the "highest possible achievement, service, and devotion to the University Bands." In 2002, Dr. Heidel was named to the "Who's Who Among America's Teachers," and in 2003 and 2010 he received the Citation of Excellence from the Wisconsin Chapter of the National Band Association. In 2005, he was initiated into Sigma Alpha Iota as a National Arts Associate, and he was elected to membership into the prestigious American Bandmasters Association in 2008. Dr. Heidel received the Collegiate Teaching Award from the UI College of Liberal Arts and Sciences in 2012, and a Citation of Excellence from the National Band Association in 2016 and 2022.

Dr. Heidel has presented clinics and workshops at state music conferences and universities in Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Mexico, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming, and he has appeared as guest conductor and clinician in more than 35 states, Washington, D.C., and the Canadian provinces of Ontario and Manitoba. In 2003, Heidel served as an adjudicator for the Limerick International Marching Band Competition and the 100th St. Patrick's Day Festival in Dublin, Ireland. Dr. Heidel was the conductor of the Asia Pacific Activities Conference APAC Band in Hanoi, Vietnam in 2016, and he was conductor of the Association of Music in International Schools High School Honor Band in Salzburg, Austria in 2019.

Dr. Heidel currently serves on the Board of Directors of the National Band Association and American Bandmasters Association, is the State of Iowa Representative for the College Band Directors National Association, and is Past President of the Big Ten Band Directors Association. His list of more than 30 publications includes articles in the National Band Association Journal, Teaching Music, Teaching Music Through Performance in Band, Iowa Bandmasters Association Magazine, and Iowa Music Educator. Dr. Heidel is Director of the Iowa Summer Music Camps, and he has taught for summer programs at the Shell Lake Arts Center (WI), Texas Tech University Band and Orchestra Camp, Illinois Summer Youth Music Program, and the International Music Camp. Heidel is an active trumpet player who frequently performs with orchestras and big bands in Iowa. Mark and Kelly, his wife of more than 30 years, live in Iowa City.

Clarinetist, educator and composer Jorge Montilla Moreno, was praised by The American Record Guide as “somebody who can perform with great enthusiasm and know how to make the repertoire of his native continent jump off the page with effortless technique, subtle dance accents and tasteful vibrato”. His major accomplishments encompass successes in performance, education, and creativity.

Montilla Moreno is best known for being a spokesperson for both Latin American music and the Eb clarinet. Jorge Montilla Moreno is the first Latin American clarinetist to record under the distinguished British label “Clarinetclassics”. Jorge Montilla Moreno is one of the many fine musicians produced by Venezuela’s “El Sistema”.

In his personal career, he has appeared as soloist, recitalist, composer and/or pedagogue in stages across the United States, Japan, Martinique, France, Puerto Rico, Colombia, Costa Rica, Czech Republic, China, Peru, Spain, Mexico, Italy, Chile, Barbados, Sta. Lucia, Puerto Rico, China, Ecuador and Brazil.

Montilla Moreno began his clarinet studies at the age of 10 in his native country Venezuela. A believer in educating younger generations, he has been the Chairman of the Clarinet Department at the Conservatory of Music Simón Bolívar and clarinet professor at the Latin American Academy of Venezuela. In the United States Montilla Moreno’s teaching experience includes teaching at Arizona State University and Longy School of Music of Bard College.

Mr. Montilla received a Masters Degree and an Artist Diploma from Indiana University Jacobs School of Music, where he studied with Howard Klug. Other notable teachers include Luis Rossi, Eli Eban, James Campbel, Walter Boeykens, Antony Pay and Ricardo Morales.

Former Principal Clarinet of the Simon Bolivar Symphony Orchestra, Montilla Moreno was also a founding member and Artistic Director of the Caracas Clarinet Quartet. His many compositions and arrangements have made him one of today’s most pre-eminent composer/arranger for clarinet ensembles.

At present, Jorge Montilla is Assistant Professor of Clarinet at the University of Iowa School of Music. He is also a columnist for the International Clarinet Association’s magazine “The Clarinet” and keeps a hectic international career as a soloist and clinician.

Jorge Montilla represents: Rossi Clarinets, D’Addario Reeds, Clarinetclassics, Royal Music Products, Lefreque sound bridges, and BG Ligatures. His compositions and arrangements are published by Woodwindiana Editions and Montilla Brothers Editions (co-founded with brother Javier Montilla). Jorge Montilla Moreno is represented worldwide by QuatreKlammer.

IOWA BANDS

Bands began to appear on the University of Iowa campus by 1875, but the first official band was established on September 14, 1881. Today, approximately 800 students – music majors and non-majors – participate in university bands. The symphony Band is the premiere wind band at UI, joined by the Concert Band, University Band, and Chamber Winds. Athletic bands include the Hawkeye Marching Band and Iowa Pep Band.

MYRON D. WELCH CONDUCTING FELLOWSHIP

In 2013, Dr. and Mrs. Myron Welch established the Myron D. Welch Conducting Fellowship to support continued excellence in the graduate conducting program. Recipients of this award include Steven Riley (2014), Joe Cernuto (2015-17), Joshua Neuenschwander (2018-21), and Myron Peterson (2021-present).
