REWARDING CAREERS IN THE MUSIC BUSINESS

After graduation from the University of Iowa in 1969, Steve West joined his father, Pearl West, at West Music Co. which Pearl had founded in 1941. Steve became President in 1983 and grew the company to include multiple locations as well as several new divisions of specialty. Steve transitioned from President to his role as Chairman in 2008.

Having served on numerous boards throughout his career, Steve is currently President of the Iowa City Community Band, a member of the Orchestra Iowa Board of Directors, Commissioner of the Eastern Iowa Airport (CID), and on the board of the Kirkwood Foundation.

Cathy Miller began her 33-year career at West Music while finishing her Bachelor of Music Performance degree at the University of Iowa under Betty Bang Mather. She led the distribution and marketing of Miyazawa Flutes, expanding the flute division over the years to include the distribution and international marketing for multiple additional brands. In her current role at West Music, she now oversees the sales and marketing for all divisions throughout the entire company.

Still an active musician, Cathy has performed at Carnegie Hall and at multiple National Flute Association (NFA) conventions as well as international flute festivals. She has served on the NFA Board of Directors and numerous committees over the years, where she currently is a member of the Diversity & Inclusion Committee.
