BIOGRAPHIES

Daniel Zipin (MA 1st Year) is a conductor of orchestral music based in Iowa City, IA. Daniel serves as a Graduate Teaching Assistant at the University of Iowa, where he is pursuing his Master of Arts in Orchestral Conducting under the tutelage of renowned French conductor Dr. Mélisse Brunet. In this role, Daniel serves as an assistant conductor of both the University of Iowa Symphony Orchestra and the Campus Symphony Orchestra, in addition to his frequent podium time with the conductor's lab ensemble. Later this year, Daniel will cover conduct under Dr. Brunet during select professional engagements with the Northeast Pennsylvania Philharmonic and the Lexington Philharmonic. Daniel is the former Music Director of the Buckeye Philharmonic Orchestra, where he led the organization through a period of growth despite the challenges presented by the pandemic. Daniel has been a past student at numerous conducting workshops, including two summers at the Conductors Retreat at Medomak, where he studied with Kenneth Kiesler. Daniel received his Bachelor of Music Education from Ohio State University in 2021, where he studied flute with Katherine Borst Jones and orchestral conducting with Miriam Burns.
