ABOUT THE ARTIST

Praised for his “impeccable musicianship, exhilarating technique, and panache” (American Record Guide), pianist Alan Huckleberry is recognized as a multi-faceted artist on the classical music scene. He has performed both in solo recitals, as a soloist with orchestras, as well as a chamber musician across Europe, North and South America, as well as Australia. He can be heard on 13 compact disc recordings on among others, the Crystal Record, Albany Record, and MSR labels. His recording of the complete wind and piano chamber music of Francis Poulenc was named one of the top classical releases of 2015. In addition to his performing career, Dr. Huckleberry is equally passionate about his role as an educator. He is currently professor of piano pedagogy and collaborative arts at The University of Iowa. There he heads the piano pedagogy program, which is now recognized as one of the leading programs in the nation. He is sought-after speaker on pedagogical topics, including talks at the National Conference on Keyboard Pedagogy, and the Music Teachers National Conference. At the University of Iowa, he also maintains a studio of national and international students, who themselves are leaving their mark in their field.
